A Trip To Pekin

Do you really know what's behind the President's visit to Pekin?

Is it "peace forever" or capitulation?

Frankly, we don't know either, but anyone with a vivid imagination can reconstruct the events to suit himself; add some dreamed-up dialog — and scare himself to death.

Example: Early this year Soviet Premier Alexi Kosygin and Communist China Premier Chou En-lai were sitting around rapping. There was a world map on the wall and a couple of bloody Maries in hand when Kosygin averred that world communism hadn't gained very much lately.

He cited that President Nixon had taken the play away from the communist world by winding down the war in Vietnam and that the end of the war would deprive Russia and China of important bargaining material.

Communist sympathizers in the United States would no longer be able to use the Vietnam debacle to create dissention and riots.

"World Communism needs a lift," Alexi said to Chou. "Maybe we ought to 'accidentally' sink a couple of American aircraft carriers as a show of strength and bring the world to the brink of war."

They discussed the matter with Communist Party Chairman Mao Tse-tung, a very wise old man.

"Nonsense," said Mao. "Why waste missiles when you can accomplish the same thing for ten cents. The dime would be for a ping pong ball and everybody recalls the "table tennis diplomacy" caper in which the U.S. table tennis team returned a visit to Red China.

As a result of the U.S. team's visit to China, Mr. Nixon's popularity rose. Later, when he became plagued with runaway inflation, unemployment, racial unrest, revolts and riots, increasing drug abuse and veneral disease epidemics, a falling stock market and other nationwide problems, his popularity sagged to a record low.

But the door had been opened by Mao's ping-pong ball and Mr. Nixon decided to exploit what lay within.

So he sent Henry Kissinger as his personal envoy to Pekin and Chou greeted him enthusiastically. Kissinger told of Mr. Nixon's respect for the economic advances made by People's China and expressed Mr. Nixon's desire to see the operation first hand.

"That will be fine." Mao said. "But it would be more meaningful if our nation had a seat in the United Nations."

Nixon thought so too so he started getting his ducks lined up for the vote. Nixon announced his proposed visit to Pekin in the interest of world peace and his popularity soared!

Not all U.N. members were happy about admitting Red China and some were to rebel as events unfolded. But the uninformed public was ecstatic! Peace — peace and prosperity was what they saw on the horizon.

Then came a greeting from Chou to Mr. Nixon. He wasn't so sure that Mr. Nixon's visit to Pekin would be useful. He had heard rumbles from the U.N. regarding China's seating. The unrest stemmed from Nationalist China. "No, Mr. Nixon, we think your visit ought to be cancelled — or at least postponedl until we get the Taiwan-U.N. issue resolved. But if Nationalist China were expelled, Mr. Nixon, we wouldn't have a problem, would we?" Chou's message read.

Mr. Nixon all but had apoplexy! If it became known that he had been rebuffed by Red China he would drop to the bottom of the totem pole as world leadership. He couldn't win a race as dog catcher in San Ysidro.

So he rushed Kissinger back to Pekin for a better understanding with Chou — and Chou was cooperative. During a long conference with Mr. Kissinger, Chou spelled it out.

In addition to helping to seat Red China in the U.N., these additional arrangements were necessary:

Taiwan must be expelled from the U.N. (It happened in Oct.). It happened when some of the dependent nations rebelled against being pressured by the U.S. into voting for seating Red China.

Seat Red China under "C" which would make possible Chou's government to assume leadership of the U.N. as vice chairman this year.

Rework Strategic Arms (SALT) talks to allow Russia to send some MIGS to Cuba (It is said they were sent late in October)

Encourage France to work out a European security conference with Soviet Communist leader Leonid I. Brezhnev. (It happened in Paris last week)

Arrange an invitation for Soviet Premier Alexai N. Kosygin to visit Canada so that he can discuss Soviet-Canadian trade. Canada is America's biggest consumer. A trade agreement with Russia would seriously affect America's staggering economy. (The meeting was held last week in Toronto).

If there were other considerations these will be made manifest before Mr. Nixon's visit to Pekin.

One important thing that wily old Chou whispered to Alexei was about the temper of the U.S. Congress. "Watch Congress cancel the foreign aid program, he said. Congress wil get so up tight because Taiwan was pushed out by the nations the U.S. have been helping that Congress will cancel its three billion dollar foreign aid program. With all that money going back to the American taxpayer the dollar will be cheaper than the old German mark when it took a wheelbarrow full to buy a loaf of bread."

With Mr. Nixon's visit still many week away, it is likely that he will face other crises with Premier Chou. If Chou can't think up some stumbling blocks, he can always fall back on Communist Party Chairman Mao for some more good advice.

There is good and sufficient reason to believe that when Mao gets through with Mssrs. Nixon and Kissinger Russia will own Texas and China will have California.

And when that happens, it will serve the communists right.

United Crusade Drive Reaches Halfway Point

The 1971 United Crusade announced a total of some $1.3 million reported to date as the annual drive reached the halfway point this week.

Campaign volunteers from throughout the country will meet Wednesday at the San Diego Stadium Club for a "Halftime Rally" lunch. Pat Hyndman, campaign chairman, announced that the goal for this meeting would be 50 percent of the $6 million goal.

"Reports to date from most areas of the campaign are very encouraging," Hyndman

Sups OK Interim Rezone

The County Board of Supervisors, acting favorably on a recommendation from the Lemon Grove Planning Association, Tuesday, adopted an interim rezoning plan designed to curtail development of the area until a community plan can be completely by the local body.

The rezone, which will be in effect for one year, makes land in Lemon Grove previously zoned R-2 and R-2-A zoned R-1-A, which means that construction of two houses or a duplex on a single lot will be prohibited.

If supervisors deem it necessary, the interim zoning can be extended for one year.

The action was in accord with action taken by the Lemon Grove Planning Association last week, when the recommendation in favor of the rezone was made. At that meeting, over 200 local residents were on hand, including some protestors of the recommendation.

Although the rezone was approved, supervisors indicated that special consideration might be given residents who wish to construct a house on their small property.

To accomplish the consideration, supervisors established a special use permit procedure, which would be free to residents and would go through the zoning administration rather than the County Planning Commissiion.

Charges Against Lake Dismissed By D.A.

Charges against Craig O. Lake, who was arrested in Lemon Grove October 19 on charges of interfering with the duties of a law enforcement officer, were dropped last week by the District Attorney.

Lake was arrested after an incident in the cafe while deputies were on the scene in answer to a complaint involving loud music.

DEDICATION — Elisabeth S. Robinson, left, a longtime resident of Spring Valley, receives a plaque from Spring Valley Fire Board Chairman Virgil Steffen in dedication ceremonies last week. The occasion was the dedication of a new fire truck, which by tradition is dedicated to a member of the community in appreciation of community service. (Mark Coffin photo)

Henry Boney Not To Seek Third Term as Supervisor

David Bird, Henry Boney, Bob Dent, Harry Scheidle, Henry Boney — and whomever.

That's the way residents of Lemon Grove and Spring Valley will recall their county supervisors.

Whomever will come in January 1973 — on the last day of Henry Boney's term because Boney will not seek reelection.

He made the announcement last week at the press conference in a meeting room in the board of supervisors quarters while TV cameras recorded his announcement and reporters posed an hour of questions.

Boney, who has just replaced Supervisor Scheidle as the supervisor in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley this week will serve out his term, he said.

Boney reminded reporters that in his campaign seven years ago he said that supervisors should serve no more than two terms. "If a supervisor cannot get his viewpoint across in two four-year terms be won't be very effective in regard to them no matter how many terms he serves," Boney said. Eight years should be long enough for a supervisor to leave his indelible mark on county government, he added.

He said he waited until redistricting was complete before making his announcement because he didn't want to muddy the waters.

Boney will ask supervisors to consider changing the county charter to limit board members to two elective four year ones.

He will also ask for a charter change restricting campaign spending to the amount of a year's salary-presently $16,000. That should be enough if there is no incumbent to fight, he said.

Such changes should attract qualified candidates who have not before shown a willingness to serve, he said. He rejected the suggestion that the low annual salary eliminates many capable businessmen. "It didn't eliminate me. I was making more than $100,000 a year when I ran," he said.

One further recommendation Boney will offer is requiring lobbyists, even the League of Women Voters, — but not especially them — to register and supervisors to list campaign contributions and gratuities — even at restaurants where they have check-signing privileges.

Boney said that he would not seek a political office in 1972 but that does not necessarily mean that his political career is ending. "You know I could sit out one year and be eligible to run for supervisor under my own recommendations," he said. He said he would not endorse a successor.

Boney said also that he would not accept a state or federal post if it were offered. "I'm simply going to enjoy living in San Diego and help my sons in the food market business."

Reminded that he spent some $58,000 seeking a State senate seat a couple of years ago — a job that would take him out of San Diego, he said "I'm smarter now."

Quieter Trains Assured

Several weeks ago we published an editorial complaint about the overblowing of the whistle on the San Diego Arizona and Eastern Railway train which meanders through the community from time to time. We heard from several people concerning our complaint. From San Francisco:

SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRANSPORTATION CO.

Dear Editor:

This is in reply to the Lemon Grove Review containing your column concerning the whistling of trains.

I fully appreciate the problem of those persons who reside near a railroad with the resultant disturbance by the whistling of trains.

We do not condone excessive blowing of the whistle; however, the locomotive engineer is required by rules and court decisions to sound a warning as train approaches a grade crossing regardless of the type of crossing protection that exists.

The operation of trains in this area comes under the jurisdiction of M. T. Harral, Superintendent of the San Diego and Arizona Eastern Railway Company, San Diego, and copy of your letter and column is being passed to him with request that he take necessary action to see that engineers are cautioned against excessive and unnecessary whistling in this area.

R. L. King
General Manager
Southern Pacific

W. T. Harral checking in with the information that his engineers are in the process of being advised to cut down on the blowing since such blowing is necessary to serve as sufficient warning to grade crossing users.

Harral added that accidents resulting from too little whistling puts the railroad in a hazardous position if a suit was instituted.

Aur article mentioned that U. S. Senator Alan Cranston was once a newsman and that he had taken a strong stand against noise pollution.

From Sen. Cranston came htis communication:

UNITED STATES SENATE

Dear Editor:

Regarding your column on railroad noise. I agree with you that whether it be on the railroads, the freeways, the airports — or in politics! — there's altogether too much noise these days.

I used to see signs saying "Quiet—Hospital Zone." For some reason, they seem to have disappeared. Instead, they shiuld have ben expanded to say something like "Quiet—People Zone!"

Cordially,
Alan Cranston

Preliminary Plans OK'd For Spring Valley Park

Preliminary plans for a 4.2-acre park in Spring Valley were presented to the Spring Valley Park and Recreation District Board Monday night, and after some discussion, were approved.

The meeting, which took place at La Presa Junior High School, was for the purpose of approving the plans and a timetable which will lead to the opening of the park before next summer.

At the meeting were representatives from the San Diego County Parks and Recreation Department, who made the presentation to members of the local board.

Representing the county were Bill Hodgson, Assistant Administrator of the Parks and Recreation Department, William C. Tucker, Senior Landscape Architect with the Parks Division, and Michael A. Perkins, who was representing Supervisor Harry Scheidle.

Larry Timmons, president of the local Parks and Recreation Advisory Council, and Herb Ketell, Park Chairman on the local council, were also on hand, as were several other members of the council.

The tentative schedule for completion of the park was was also announced:

November 8 — Start initial construction plans and specifications.

December 6 — Complete and approve construction plans and specifications for the first phase of the park.

December 21 — Make plans for bidding.

January 20, 1972 — Open bidding for grading and construction of the park.

February 8, 1972 — Award contracts for construction of the park.

February 21, 1972 — Begin construction.

April 28, 1972 — Complete initial construction.

May 30, 1972 — Final approval and opening of the park.

Total expenditures on construction of the park have been estimated at $64,850, which would include grass, shrubs and plants, a concrete stage, sidewalks, horseshoe pits, a volleyball court, a children's playground, electrical and irrigation systems, picnic tables and barbecue facilities.

Construction costs will not include payments on a 25-year lease, which will come from regular district tax collections. The district presently collects 17.9 cents per $100 valuation for operation of its recreational program, and a portion of the money in the past has been used in saving for construction of the new park.

According to a spokesman for the district, the district will not increase its tax rate to make payments on the lease, which calls for $1,000 per acre per year for 25 years and an option to purchase after the lease runs out.

The lease also includes an option to purchase for 11 additional acres in the same area, which is located at Jamacha blvd. and Gillespie dr., across the street from the Spring Valley Shopping Center.

Tax Bills Are Here and Higher

County tax bills were being received with varied emotions by local property owners this week.

Most prevalent expression was "holy smoke!"

Maybe that's as good a reaction as any.

James E. Jones, County Tax Collector, had a more down-to-earth rationale.

County government is costing $325.6 million this year. Last year it was $274.4 million, Jones said.

County tax bills are up 18 per cent, he said. Assessed valuation is up 17 per cent.

"The ever increasing cost of government is reflected in the high bills. Mounting inflation is also responsible. Until these pressures are resolved, tax bills will continue to increase," he said.

He said the President's freeze order had not taken effect in San Diego County yet. "It's too early," he said.

At least one Lemon Grove man reported a 68 per cent increase in his tax bill.

School Bond Defeat Brings Project Delay

The failure of the Grossmont Union High School District's $19.5 million bond issue has brought about a delay in projects that would have been funded by the money, including the opening of the district's ninth high school.

The money, had the bond passed, would have been used to construct Valhalla High School, the ninth school, as well as pay for site purchases for the tenth and eleventh schools and improvements to existing school facilities.

District Superintendent Austin Sellery told trustees at a meeting of the board last week that the projects would be delayed until a study of the situation could be completed, which would be about one month from now.

The study will indicate which projects have the highest priority and should be completed.

Also at the meeting, two plans were presented for board consideration on means of funding Valhalla. The first plan calls for beginning construction of the plan immediately and either passing a bond issue next spring or raising the district tax rate next summer. The second plan would call for a contractor to finance and build the school, to be followed by a tax election to repay the builders.

Results of the election indicated that voters were unhappy with district spending. One point was that the funds to construct Valhalla were included in a bond issue in 1967, and voters were asked to pass another bond to finance a project that should have been already funded.

The reason why Valhalla construction was not paid for with 1967 bond money, is that the district decided to use the money for the purchase of another site before a housing development skyrocketed prices. Additionally, inflation has caused construction costs to rise above those expected at the time of the 1967 bond issue.

Sellery told trustees that the opening date of the ninth school would be delayed at least until September of 1973. The faculty planning committee for the new school urged prompt funding of the school so that its opening would not be delayed more than one year.

Landry Wins Award

More than $1500 in prizes were awarded to winning artists in the competitive exhibit at the Third Annual Fall Art Show at Rancho California, according to George Woods, owners of the Chriswood Gallery and sponsor of the show.

Robert Landry of Lemon Grove was presented with the Artists' Choice Award, voted by the 50 artists who participated in the event. Landry, who has won more than 50 watercolor awards from the East to the West Coast, also took third prize in the watercolor competition.

Water, Fire Directors Re-elected

Harry Griffen, the incumbent director of the Helix Irrigation District in division three, will add four more years to his 21-year service record as the result of Tuesday's election.

He defeated Richard Allen, of Spring Valley 1,556-838 in a light turn-out. There are 12,440 voters in the division.

Meanwhile, Allen was re-elected as director of the Spring Valley Fire Protection District as he faced election on two fronts. Directors may legally serve both a fire and a water district.

Allen was re-elected with two other Spring Valley Fire District incumbents, eliminating a first-timer, Chester Abood. The totals: Allen, 1,017; Virgil Steffen, 987; Stan Totten, 961, and Abood, 364.

Abood, who has moved out of the district since he filed his candidacy, would have been ineligible to serve had he been elected. In the event of his election, the board would have appointed a director to serve his term.

In the Lemon Grove Fire Protection District the incumbents were re-elected. Parker Shumate, 1,421; John Hemmer, 1,213 and Joe Ouelette, a first timer, 575.

In the Helix race, directors are elected by division but serve the entire District. There were elections in three of the five divisions. In Division 1, Mabel Bryan defeated Lloyd Loftus 1,394-1161. 16,008 voters are registered.

In Division 5, Nat Eggert won 1,185-976 over Fred Miles, Loftus 1,394-1,1661. 16,008 voters are registered.

The other two divisions will elect in two years.

In the San Diego City election, 38-year old Assemblyman Pete Wilson defeated City Attorney Ed Butler for the $12,000-a-year mayor's post. The vote was 115,417-71,321. 65% of the voters turned out.

For council, Maureen O'Connor, a 25-year old school teacher defeated Lou Ridgeway in a low-cost, volunteer operated upset.

Market analyst Jim Bates, 30, defeated Harry Standifer, a 69-year old construction cost engineer by a wide margin, 106,527-60,578.

Incumbent Councilman Leon Williams defeated Art Akers, a perennial candidate, 105,041-58,053.

Incumbent Bob Martinet defeated Don Harmon 92,014-79,890.

A proposition by which bonds would cover the cost of proposed improvements of Balboa Park was rejected. It required a two-thirds majority but came nearer 60 per cent. Totals were: yes, 106,260. No, 70,779.

The totals are complete but unofficial.

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

"Tener" means "to have" when it is used alone. The form of "tener" is changed to "yo tengo" when we wish to say "I have" as seen in "Yo tengo poco dinero." (I have little money.). The form is changed again when we say "el tiene" to mean "he has" as expressed in "El tiene mucho dinero." for "He has a lot of money."

"Tener" can also mean "to be" when used in expressions like "tener suerte" (to be lucky), "tener cuidado (to be careful), "tener buena cera" (to be looking well), "tener gusto" (to be glad), and "tener razon" (to be right). These expressions may become more practical when they are stated in the first person form as in "Yo tengo suerte." (I am lucky.), "Yo tengo cuidado." (I am careful.), "Yo tengo miedo." (I am afraid.), "Yo tengo gusto." (I am glad.), and "Yo tengo razon." (I am right.).

We may also describe our friends with certain traits when we say "El tiene suerte." (He is lucky.), "Ella tiene cuidado." (She is careful.), "El tiene miedo." (He is afraid.), and "Ella tiene razon." (She is right.). We may form questions with these same expressions by placing the verb in the front part of the phrases as in "Tiene el suerte?" (Is he lucky?), "Tiene ella cuidado?" (Is she careful?), "Tiene el miedo?" (Is he afraid?), and "Tiene el razon?" (Is he right?).

"Tener mucha gracia." means "to be very funny." When inquiring about a friend we might ask "Tiene el mucha gracia?" for "Is he very funny?" An affirmative answer might be "El tiene mucha gracia." (He is very funny.).

"Tener buena cara" suggests "to be looking well" or "to be looking good." This expression may be used to describe persons or objects. Thus we may say "La comida tiene buena cara." (The food looks good.) or "Roberto tiene muy buena cara." (Robert looks very well.). Negative statements may be expressed in "El pastel no tiene buena cara." (The cake doesn't look very good.) and in "Tomas no tiene buena cara." (Tom does not look well.).

LG Man Plays Key Role In Electric Cable Repair

Walter McCollum, of 7915 Lincoln st., Lemon Grove, played a key role recently in overcoming an underground explosion at Miramar Naval Air Station which blew out a 12,000 volt underground electric power cable.

McCollum, head of the maintenance department at the station, co-ordinated efforts of his and two other departments in repairing the cable.

The damaged cable was bypassed on a temporary basis while work was done on the $18,000 job of repair.

McCollum's short telephone call to North Island resulted in loan of two cable splicers, John Fey of Bonita and Bob Simmons of San Diego, both assigned to the North Island Navy Public Works Department.

Meanwhile, other maintenance department men assigned to the project included foreman electrician Bruno Leonesio of 7602 Circle dr., Lemon Grove.

Others rounding out the crew included former cable splicer William H. Belmer of La Mesa now serving as supervisory electrical planner and estimator; Ken Nicoll of Santee; Al Walker of San Diego; Dean Giddings of San Diego; and Jim Shrum of 7021 Central ave., Lemon Grove, along with the two North Island men.

But a material need is evident on most jobs and the Miramar project was no exception. This plunged head of the 50-man Material Department, Ralph Habecker of San Diego into action along with three other of the department's employees.

Others tasked with rounding up the necessary material for the Miramar project included Carter Curtis of Chula Vista; Leonard Campbell of San Diego; and Mrs. Lillian Wood of La Mesa.

One of the biggest problems was where to get cable to match that at Miramar.

An example of "outside the center teamwork" resulted in a phone call to a representative of the San Diego Gas and Electric Company by maintenance control department's Bob Foster of El Cajon.

"Can you spare some cable?" SDG&E, Head of Government Sales, Gordon Kimbal, was asked. A short, yes was the answer.

Of importance in this area, Kimbal is tasked with the business of selling power — not cable. But by PWC being able to purchase a large portion of the cable outright, instead of replacement in kind, the Center was able to save Miramar some $5,000 in this transaction.

Meanwhile, Material Department personnel located other needed cable in Los Angeles. Transportation Department personnel were alerted resulting the delivery at the work site in short order.

In the meantime, William H.

FORUM CHAIRMAN — Gordon L. Austin, an El Cajon businessman, was last week named chairman of the 1972 Forum of the Foothills, after serving as moderator of the series for three years. Austin said that a subscription drive would be underway soon to raise money for the 1972 season.

G. L. Austin To Chair Forum of the Foothills

Gordon L. Austin, a self-employed businessman, has been named chairman of the 1972 Forum of the Foothills, a town-hall type lecture series which is entering its fifth season.

Austin succeeds Dr. Paul Parker, a La Mesa psychiatrist, who served as chairman for the past two years.

Austin has been moderator of the Forum of the Foothills for the last three years, during which time the series has featured such distinguished speakers as Haim Ginnot, Joel Fort, Victor Krulak, Murray Banks, Mrs. Medgar Evers, Joseph Kimble and William McGill.

Since 1959, Austin has been an independent automobile dealer in San Diego and he recently became a licensed real estate broker.

He has been an active member of the La Mesa Kiwanis Club since 1967 and currently is the club's president-designate.

For the past three years, he has been the San Diego-Imperial counties zone chairman of Key Clubs, youth service groups sponsored by Kiwanis. In this capacity he has worked with students from 38 high schools. He also has been Kiwanis advisor for the Helix High School Key Club since 1968.

The Forum is a non-profit organization which operates through subscriptions by families and individuals. It is nonpartisan and non-sectarian in nature and is designed to bring speakers of local, state and national reputation to the area to discuss subjects of importance to all segments of the community.

Austin said a subscription drive will begin as soon as confirmations have been received from five speakers, who will be scheduled on Sunday evenings during February, March and April of 1972. All lectures, which will include question and answer periods, will be held in the Grossmont Junior College gymnasium.

Subscriptions for the entire series again will be $5 for individuals, $10 for families, and $50 for sponsorships, which entitle the subscribers to 10 tickets for each lecture. Austin said past series have attracted more than 800 paid subscribers.

Foundation's Grants Most In History

Dr. Robert T. Reid, President of the San Diego and Imperial Counties Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation, reported the largest number of grants for 1971-1972 in the chapter's history. Only New York City has a larger number of grants.

"Those doctors doing advance research in arthritis", said Reid, "are as follows: Julia E. Lever, Phd., who is investigating causes and control of gout; Robert F. Shapiro, M.D. investigating cause and control of SLE and associated kidney disease; Harry Bluestein, M.D., investigating immune mechanisms in the arthritis diseases, at UCSD Medical School; Stephen E. Blomgren, M.D. investigating cause and control of SLE and associated kidney disease; Otto Gotze, M.D. doing research in immune mechanisms in the arthritis diseases, Eng M. Tan, M.D., cause and control of SLE and associated kidney disease, at Scripps Clinic and Research Foundation; Lars O. Martensson, M.D., immune mechanisms in the arthritis diseases at the Salk Institute."

Each stipend enables the scientist to investigate one particular aspect of rheumatic disease and facets of the complex process of inflammation now known to be the key to arthritis.

Power Plant Proposed

San Diego Gas & Electric Company last week proposed construction of a new conventional generating unit to avert the possibility of power shortages and blackouts in 1975 and beyond as a result of delays in the construction of two new nuclear units at San Onofre.

Walter A. Zitlau, SDG&E president, said it appears that the most favorable site for the proposed unit is the Encina Power Plant. This view was based on studies to determine possible alternatives.

S.D. Gulls To Open Four-Game Homestand Saturday

SEATTLE — The San Diego Gulls take on the Seattle Totems at the Seattle Center Coliseum here tonight, then return home to open a four-game homestand on Saturday night against the Salt Lake Golden Eagles at the Sports Arena.

Tonight's game will be broadcast on KOGO radio 60 at 7:45 p.m. All Gull games throughout the season are aired on KOGO.

Saturday night's clash against the vastly improved Golden Eagles will open a stretch of four straight games at the Sports Arena. Following the Eagles into San Diego will be Portland, Denver and Phoenix.

Seattle snapped a seven-game losing streak by beating Phoenix last Friday night, and have had six days off to rest.

In last week's activity, the Gulls won two games and lost one. San Diego ran its home winning streak to three games by shutting out Seattle, 7-0, on Thursday night. Denver blanked the Gulls, 5-0, in Denver on Friday night, and the Gulls snapped back with a 6-3 win over Salt Lake on Saturday night in the Utah city.

Ken Broderick gained his second straight home ice shutout with his blanking of the Totems on Thursday. Bob Courcy scored a pair of goals to pace a high-powered San Diego attack. Rookie Orest (Little O) Kindrachuk scored his third goal of the season.

Bob Courcy scored his first hat trick of the season on Saturday night to pace the Gulls 6-3 win over Salt Lake. Courcy, who scored 14 goals in 14 games against the Eagles last season, was knocked to the ice after his first goal Saturday night and cannot remember much about the remainder of the first period or the second period of the game. Included in the foggy period was his second goal of the game.

Jack Evans picked up two assists against the Eagles and was on the ice for five of the San Diego Goals. His defense partner, Dunc McCallum, was on the ice for all six San Diego goals.

About 1.7 million automobile drivers were involved in accidents in the month of April, 1971.

TROUT PLANT — The initial planting of 3,500 pounds of trout for this season took place Wednesday at Lake Jennings, in preparation for opening day tomorrow. Fishing will be permitted at the lake each Friday, Saturday, Sunday, and legal holiday from 5:30 a.m. until sunset. Fishermen must hold a valid state fishing license with a trout stamp as well as a permit from the lake. A $5 state license will enable any angler over 15 years of age to take trout, and lake permits are $2 for adults 16 and older, $1 for youngsters aged 8 to 15, and those under eight fish free, although fish they catch are counted against a paid adult. All needed licenses are available at the lake.

All Vietnam veterans seeking employment with city, county, state or federal government or private industry have been invited to attend the "Veterans Job Fair" which will be held at the War Memorial Building, in San Diego, November 18 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Gordon R. Elliott, Director of the VA's Southern California Regional Office, said that the job fair is being sponsored by the Veterans Administration Regional Office, and the San Diego Area Veterans Employment Committee. Employers will be available for interviewing veterans for various job openings.

Positions will vary from the unskilled to the technical fields and professions.

Mats Take Third At Mount SAC

Behind a second place finish by Joe Stubbs, Mount Miguel grabbed third place honors at the Mount San Antonio College Cross Country Invitational last Saturday.

Stubbs finished with a time of 10:10 in a 96-man field of runners from the greater Southern California area. Behind Stubbs was Matador Joe Badger with a time of 10:35 in 9th place.

Third man for Mt. Miguel was Bob Morrison in 10:50, good enough for 18th place. Junior Rick Debus ran 20th in 10:55. Rounding out the top five for the Mats was Gary Trask in 33rd place, timed in 11:08.

Mount Miguel was not up to par, however. Both John Klein and Jim Jordan, Miguel's third and fifth men, were unable to run because of illness.

Tomorrow, Mount Miguel will travel to run against traditional rival Helix High School. Coach Jim Peabody, of Mt. Miguel, said, "Helix is really going to be tough. They ran better than we did at Mt. SAC. But we were without a couple of kids. It's going to be quite a meet."

Biomedical Program Is Accredited

Grossmont College President Erv F. Metzgar has been notifed that Grossmont College has been awarded full accreditation for its Associate in Science Degree Program in Biomedical Technology by the nationally recognized Engineers Council for Professional Development.

Grossmont College, now in its fourth year with the program, is the first community college in the United States to receive accreditation from the ECPD.

One of the most successful programs offered by Grossmont College, the Biomedical Technology Program increases in scope and number of students each year. All graduates of the program are currently employed as research technicians, cardio-pulmonary technicians, equipments repair technicians and as biomedical monitoring technicians.

The program attracts students from all age groups, ethnic backgrounds and educational levels. Approximately 12 percent of the students are females ranging from 17 to 49 years of age. Many of the men in the program are ex-hospital corpsmen or medics with a background of combat military service. Four students in the program have baccalaureate or higher degrees.

A rigorous educational program that includes chemistry, physiology, mathematics, physis and electronics, plus courses in biomedical instrumentation, physiological measurements, cario-pulmonary and cardiovascular clinical techniques followed by clinical experience in an area hospital, prepare the graduates for entry into the health science field with a broad educational background and a specialty in biomedical technology.

Cubic Sales Increase

A 36 per cent increase in sales and a rise of 33 per cent in profits for the third quarter of 1971 were reported last week by Cubic Corporation's chief executive officer Walter J. Zable.

The San Diego based industrial manufacturer said, sales for the third quarter, ended September 30, were $13,195,400 compared to $9,715,300 reported for the same period one year ago.

High-Ridin' Chargers Try for 3-in-a-row Against Giants Sunday

Hallowed Yankee Stadium, renown for harboring ghosts of athletes goneby, will entertain a live and frisky ghost Sunday.

Gary "The Ghost" Garrison will lead the San Diego Chargers (3-4) against the New York Giants (2-5). Kickoff is 10 a.m. (PST).

If NBC cameras are quick enough, you can see Gary catch passes from John Hadl on KOGO-10 to the call of Charlie Jones and Willie Davis. The game will be broadcast by Stu Nahan and Ralph Lawler on KDEO and the Charger network.

Nicknamed "The Ghost" for his knack of swooping under a pass and disappearing from defenders, Garrison registered his third successive 100-yard plus receiving game last Sunday as the Chargers bombed the New York Jets, 49-21, on "Water Ecology Day" at San Diego Stadium. Gary caught six passes for 162 yards and one touchdown.

The 6-1, 190 pound five-year veteran from San Diego State, who never has caught less than 40 passes a year, is headed for his third 1,000-yard season. After seven games, he has gained 556 yards on 23 catches for a whopping 24.2-yard average.

Sunday's game will be the first (and last) appearance for the Chargers in Yankee Stadium, an edifice which San Diego General Manager and former Giant linebacker Harland Svare warns can become haunted for first-time visitors.

But Coach Sid Gillman is more concerned with the talents of such Giant giants as quarterback Fran Tarkenton, running back Ron Johnson and defensive end Fred Dryer.

The Chargers beat the Giants, 30-27, in their only previous meeting, a pre-season game in San Diego last year. Sunday San Diego will be seeking its third consecutive victory and a sweep of New York State teams. The Chargers beat Buffalo, 20-3, two weeks ago.

John Hadl was magnificent against the Jets, completing 19 of 27 passes for 358 yards and four touchdowns while generating a 523-yard Charger attack. He also ran for 38 yards and scored one touchdown.

"John Hadl is one great quarterback," said Gillman of the 10-year veteran from Kansas, who fell one yard shy of his previous best passing day. He did not attempt a pass during the last nine minutes of the game.

Two Charger rookies had big days. Mike Montgomery ran for 36 yards and one touchdown and caught four passes for 72 yards and one touchdown. Billy Parks caught four passes to raise his season's total to 33, tops in the NFL.

Standouts on defense were middle linebacker Bob Babich, who made 17 tackles to lift his 1971 total to 96; reserve cornerback Chris Fletcher, who scored on a 36-yard interception return, and ace cornerback Bob Howard, who limited Don Maynard to one catch for five yards, and also take home a game ball.

After Sunday's game, the Chargers return home against the St. Louis Cardinals in the ABC "Game of the Week" on Monday, Nov. 15. Kickoff is 6 p.m. The game will not be televised in San Diego and Los Angeles.

Parkway, La Presa Win Jr. High Meets

Parkway Junior High took first place honors in the seventh grade race, while La Presa Junior High nailed down the top spot in the eighth grade race in the first of the La Mesa Rrecreation District's Junior High Cross Country meets.

Parkway, led by John Sabin, who won the race, racked up 37 points to win the seventh grade race, while Spring Valley Junior High managed second place with 39 tallies. La Presa took third with 55 points.

In eighth grade competition, Richard Bales and Paul Miller took first and second respectively to make an easy win for La Presa with a scant 29 points. Spring Valley was second with 50 tallies, and Parkway managed 59 and third place.

Basketball Registration Nov. 13, 20

Registration for boys enrolled in grades 4 through 9 who wish to play in the Spring Valley Park and Recreation Department league, will be November 13 and 20 at Mount Miguel High School.

The youngsters will be classified into three divisions according to age, but may play in a division above their grade level depending on ability.

Registration will be from 10 a.m. to noon both weeks, with basketball clinics to be held November 14 for 4th and 5th graders at 1 p.m. Clinics for 6th and 7th graders will be November 20 at noon, and the same day at 2 p.m. for 8th and 9th graders.

Tryouts will be December 4 starting at 10 a.m. for the youngest age groups. After each youngsters' selection, he will be notified by his coach.

Also needed for the league are coaches and assistant coaches, and Skip Fenn may be contacted at 463-6611, ext. 33, for information.

Registration fees are $1.50 for residents of the Spring Valley Recreation District and $2.50 for non-residents, and both figures include insurance.

Games will be played Wednesday and Thursday evenings and Saturdays.

STICKY FINGERS — Dave Rower, Mount Miguel's sticky-fingered defensive back, is shown as he runs back a Joe Roth pass which he intercepted in the Matador-Granite Hills game last Friday night. Rower intercepted two aerials as he helped his team to a 26-0 victory over the Eagles.

Monarchs Suffer Loss To Helix; To Invade Eagle Nest Tomorrow

By Tom Blattler

The Helix Highlanders, led by quarterback Jim Browning, crushed the Monte Vista Monarchs, 28-12, last Friday night at Monte Vista Stadium.

The Highlanders' senior signal caller kept his passing lead in the Grossmont League standings as he completed 10 of 17 passes for 199 yards. Browning also threw two touchdowns and one interception.

Helix had an excellent balance attack as the Highlanders also gained 167 yards on the ground for a total yardage of 366.

The Grossmont League's leading rusher, Frank Woolrich, picked up 64 yards, which is a low total for Woolrich.

Monte Vista also gained some pretty good yardage for itself, getting 146 yards rushing and 79 yards passing for a total of 225 yards.

Art Spahr of the Monarchs connected on eight of 15 attempts for 79 yards to hold his position of second in the league passing statistics. He has completed 44 passes in 92 tries for 403 yards, one touchdown and five interceptions.

The Highlanders scored first in the game on a two-yard run by Woolrich in the second quarter. The drive covered 73 yards in 12 plays with the key play being a six-yard pass from Browning to halfback Sam Smith on a fourth down and five situation.

Helix scored a second time before the half on a run of 12 yards by Smith. A Browning-to-Bob Kenyon pass on a third-and-eight situation which covered 13 yards was the key play of the drive.

The half ended with the score 14-0 in favor of the Highlanders.

Helix made the score 21-0 in the third quarter on a pass play from Browning to the league's leading receiver, Ken Sluder, which went for five yards.

Wide receiver Dave Oliver scored the Highlanders' fourth and final touchdown of the night on a pass from Browning which covered 77 yards. At that point with the score 28-0, the Highlanders coasted in for their fifth league win.

Monte Vista's only points came on touchdown runs of six yards by fullback Bob Shipley and a three-yard run by halfback Tim Murphy.

Monte Vista will be on the road tomorrow night with a visit to Valley Stadium and a clash with arch-rival Granite Hills.

The Eagles, who last week dropped a 26-0 decision to ever-improving Mount Miguel, depend on a good rushing game for most of their points, but have had problems defending against the same type of offense.

Monte Vista will get a chance to win its second league game of the season when Art Spahr and Company invade the Eagle nest. Spahr will get a chance to edge closer to Helix QB Jim Browning in the race for the league's best signal-caller.

Browning has to face Mount Miguel tomorrow night and a pass defense that last week allowed only 104 yards and intercepted a pair of Granite Hills aerials.

Meanwhile, Spahr will get a chance at the Eagles, who last week allowed Mount Miguel's predominantly ground-minded offense to hit the airways with 93 passing yards. The Matadors, who usually run 80 percent of the time, still managed two touchdowns on pass plays.

Arch-Rivals To Clash

Mt. Miguel To Invade Helix Tomorrow Night

By Paul Stark

The Mount Miguel High School football team, in a tune-up game for back-to-back encounters with heated rivals, blanked the Granite Hills Eagles, 26-0 last Friday night on the losers' field.

Mount Miguel struck for blood during the first two quarters, as Dan Cowan and Tim Miller were responsible for three long touchdowns, in preparation for games with Helix and Monte Vista the next two weeks.

The first was a 29-yard run by Cowan after breaking tackles on the left side. A few minutes later, Miller got his first of two TD's when he caught a Jess Jenner pass in the end zone for a 29-yard pass play. Miller capped the first-half scoring with a 73-yard right end sweep to make the score 20-0.

The local team settled down to a conservative defensive game in the second half, scoring only once on a 27-yard pass from Jenner to Norman Jiminez.

In the game, Mount Miguel displayed its newest weapon — the pass play — with Jess Jenner completing six aerials for 90 yards, his best performance of the year.

Along with the offensive pass display, the Matadors also used the Granite Hills game as an opportunity for pass defense practice in preparation for tomorrow night's game at Helix High.

The Miguel defensive backs got in plenty of practice, picking off four Granite Hills tosses while holding the usually effective Eagle pass offense to less than 100 yards.

The local team will need all that practice and maybe a bit more for tomorrow's contest, which features the league's best passer in Jim Browning of Helix, who has amassed 833 yards in five games.

Offensively, Mount Miguel will counter with the league's leading scorer, Tim Miller, who has tallied 50 points. Miller is second in the league in rushing with 476 yards, tops in loop rushing average with 7.6 yards per carry, second in pass receiving with 206 yards, second in punting with a 36.0 yard average, and first in punt returns with 55 yards in six returns.

Helix has a few league leaders of its own in addition to Browning with Frank Woolrich, the top ground gainer with 588 yards, and Ken Sluder, the league top pass catcher with 213 yards in 16 receptions.

Aside from top league players, both teams are ladened with talent both offensively and defensively.

Offensively, Helix has a pair of guards that have made things easy going for the running backs. Kim Grote and Dave Strohauer are excellent with opening holes for Woolrich and Sam Smith, and are also a key portion of the protection for Browning's passes.

On the defensive line, Helix has another pair of fine penetrators in Al Alavris and Dan Hiben, who have caused problems for opposing quarterbacks with their tenacious play.

But the Helix players will be up against some rough cookies when they host the physical Matadors, who are among the strongest and most desirous competitors in the league.

The Mount Miguel offensive line has been so consistent this year that it is a rare moment when Dan Cowan or Tim Miller fail to gain good yardage on their running plays, and an even rarer moment when quarterback Jess Jenner has been sacked.

Mount Miguel's defensive line has improved tremendously in the last three weeks, being largely responsible in holding down the scores of Matador opponents.

The Matadors have a pair of shutouts in their last three contests — 13-0 over Santana and 26-0 over Granite Hills — and have been the only team to hold Grossmont's explosive offense to less than 30 points.

In addition to all the ingredients to a tremendous game is the fact that Helix and Mount Miguel have been arch-rivals since the Matadors first fielded a team a dozen years ago.

The game will begin at 8 p.m. with the Highlanders rated a slight favorite and Mount Miguel itching for another upset. The contest will be a crucial one for both teams.

If Helix collects the victory the Highlanders could win the Grossmont League title with a win over Grossmont, but if they lose, could end up in a second place tie.

A win for Mount Miguel would extend hope for a second place tie and an outside chance for an at-large berth in the C.I.F. playoffs, which would be quite a turn-around for the team picked for last place.

Monarchs, Matadors To Get Upset Wins

By John Nicholson

Following is what the prep sports scene will look like this week — complete with the teams that look the most like winners:

Football

Grossmont at El Capitan. Both teams are hot ones at the moment, but the Foothillers still have the best offense in the league and a defense that can figure out El Cap's sneaky quarterback option. Grossmont by 14 points.

Monte Vista at Granite Hills. When looking at this game, one must ignore any slight advantages one team may have over another. Whichever of these two arch-rivals want to win the most will do so. Monte Vista has lost all hopes of a successful season and will now concentrate on knocking of its two rivals — the Eagles, and Mount Miguel, who will host the Monarchs next week. Granite Hills may not be up enough for this one. Monte Vista in a 6-point upset.

Mount Miguel at Helix. Helix has all the tools necessary to beat Mount Miguel in this traditional rivalry. But the Matadors, with a couple of upsets already under their belts, should surprise the Highlanders. Mount Miguel in another upset, but by 13 points.

Santana vs. El Cajon at Monte Vista. El Cajon has been beaten by lesser teams than the Sults, and this game should be no surprise when Santana wins by 15.

Cross Country

Grossmont at El Cap. Grossmont, running on the El Cap course, could have some trouble with the Vaqueros. Both teams have yet to claim victory this season, but Grossmont should get the nod here by about 3 points.

Monte Vista at Granite Hills. The Eagles, who have won three meets this season, will undoubtably lose this one to the stronger Monarchs. Monte Vista, however, will run over the tough Eagle course where Mount Miguel was nearly upset last week. Monte Vista by 7 points.

Santana at El Cajon. The Braves have everything going for them in this meet. They have won five meets in as many attempts, they have the home course, and they will be running against a team that hasn't won yet this year. El Cajon by 20.

Mount Miguel at Helix. The Helix harriers are a good crew, having lost only to El Cajon and Monte Vista. Mount Miguel has lost to El Cajon also but has not met Monte Vista yet. The Matadors figure to win, but probably by only 11 or 12 points.

Hawks Lead Soccer Loop

The latest results and standings from the Suburban Soccer League indicate that the Hawks have continued in first place in the Spring Valley-Lemon Grove division, while the Lions have the top spot in the La Mesa division.

In the Spring Valley-Lemon Grove division, the Hawks blanked the Ravens, 10-0, to continue unbeaten, while the second place Trafalgers kept pace with the leaders with 4-2 win over the Dragons, and the third place Roadrunners nipped the Falcons, 3-0.

In the La Mesa division, the Lions continued unbeaten with a 5-0 victory over the Pro's, while the Playboys kept second place by winning a squeaker over the Rippers, 4-3. The third place Northstars dropped a full game out of second place by tying with the Rangers, 1-1.

Saturday's action will see a battle of the unbeatens when the Hawks and Trafalgers square off, while the La Mesa division leaders take on a not-too-tough Socceroos crew.

Golf Tourney To Aid Boys

The Second Annual County Boys' Club Golf Tourney will be held at San Luis Rey Country club in Bonsall, Friday, November 12, it was announced today.

Tee off will be 11 a.m.-1 p.m.; a social hour at 5 and a prime rib dinner at 6, according to Dr. Charles Clark, tourney chairman. Awards will be made at the dinner.

The $25 fee includes the green fee, a cart and the dinner, he said.

Last year the event raised $300. "We are aiming for $1,000 for the boys this year," according to Dione Rich, tourney publicity chairman.

The Boys' club administers to all boys between the ages of 7 and 18.

Reservations for the golf tourney may be made at 232-3061.

Aztecs to Face San Jose State

San Diego State faces the second of three consecutive major Pacific Coast Athletic Association contests this week as the Aztecs travel to meet San Jose State.

The Aztecs, 4-2 on the season and 2-1 in PCAA play, will test a very deceptive Spartan squad, 2-4-1 and 2-1, this Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in San Jose's Spartan Stadium. Both teams need to win in order to stay close to Fresno State. The loser will be eliminated from the PCAA title picture and a subsequent berth in the Pasadena Bowl.

"Our back is up against the wall now," commented Aztec cmoach Don Coryell. "We just absolutely have to go out and play a good ball game and beat San Jose State.

"We're just going to have to play like we did against Utah State," continued Coryell. "If we can play that well then we can beat San Jose. If we don't play that well then we won't have a chance."

Local Acts Due On TV Saturday

A pair of local youngsters will appear on television Saturday morning to promote the Spring Valley Theatre's next production, a musical variety show called "Sidewalks of New York".

Gary Dickens, 13, and Mark Price, a Mount Miguel High School student, will be guests n the "Chester the Jester" show at 8 a.m. on KFMB-TV8. Dickens will perform a unicycle act, while Price will appear as a juggling clown.

The production at the local theatre will open the following day at 2 p.m. and will be featured at one other performance November 14. The theatre is a 9052 Memory lane, Spring Valley.

The show itself is staged against a backdrop of a New York street, complete with a boarding house occupied by a family of Irish children, a record shop, barbershop, discotheque, and subway.

Among the featured performers will be a seven piece band "Butika", which will be seen in the discothque, the "Tappin' Tots", Marlena Hughes, playing the role of a talented cleaning woman, and a barbershop quartet.

Admission prices to the Gladyce Levy production are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children, with tickets available at the door.

Questionnaires Set For Vets

The Veterans Administration will mail out 1.25 million questionnaire cards to veterans and widows receiving VA pension checks, including about 200,000 in San Diego County.

Income cards will be included with VA checks delivered about November 1, according to David A. Leslie, Director of the County Veterans Service Dept.

Leslie emphasized that the cards must be completed and returned no later than January 15, 1972. Persons needing help should go to the County Veterans Service Department in the Courthouse. Assistance will also be available on a part-time basis at Oceanside, Vista, Escondido, El Cajon and La Mesa.

Carlos Montoya Concert On Tap

Carlos Montoya, world famous master of the flamenco guitar, will appear in concert at the San Diego Civic Theatre Saturday at 8:30 p.m.

One of the most widely heard performers in any concert idio, Montoya has brought flamenco music to virtually every major outpost of the world, from the U. S. and Canada to Europe and the Orient, eliciting critical acclaim everywhere.

In addition to his tours, Montoya has won international favor through his numerous recordings. He is, in fact, the most recorded flamenco artist in history and has become the living symbol of flamenco music the world over.

Local Men Named To Red Cross

At its recent meeting the Helix Red Cross Branch elected two Heartland area men, Ronald Dahlgren and E. L. Fitts to its board of directors, according to Vincent Odom, board chairman.

Ronald Dahlgren is the Assistant Administrator of the Grossmont Hospital. Dahlgren is no newcomer to Red Cross, having served three years as a staff person in the Watts area in Los Angeles.

E. L. "Mike" Fitts is Director of Installations at the newly expanded Telephone Co. plant in La Mesa. Both men are comparatively newcomers to the local area.

Odom also indicated that the branch's major thrust this fall would be to train workers and to set up an organization which will be ready for call on any major community emergency.

The Helix Red Cross Branch meets at noon the first Thursday of each month at the La Mesa Chamber of Commerce.

CHALET — A Lemon Grove podiatrist has enlarged his University Avenue office to house five medical men—making it one of the largest for treatment of foot disorders and surgery in the western states. The office, resembling a 4,000 square-foot chalet, was built by Dr. Paul Califano. An Open House is planned for Nov. 18.

Podiatric Center, One of Coast's Largest, Boasts Four Foot Men, Exchange Program

by Max Goodwin

The building looks like a Swiss chalet and it may have a Danish air abut it soon, but as it stands now it is the recently enlarged foot and eye complex at 7170 University ave., headed by Paul Califano, doctor of podiatric medicine. Podiatric medicine is the medical and surgerical treatment of the human foot.

In the expansion, there will also be a doctor of optometry. That's a doctor who fits glasses to human eyes.

Where does the Danish reference come in? Dr. Califano plans to bring two Danish girl chiropodist technicians to work with him in a pilot exchange program. Danish generally, are blond and beautiful. They are also extremely intelligent and competent, he sand.

Dr. Califano had his office in Lemon Grove for five years and has been in his present location for six. He is immediate past president of the Lemon Grove Kiwanis club.

His newly enlarged facility covers about 4,000 square feet of working area, said to be one of the largest such facilities in the western states. It will house four podiatrists and one doctor of optometry. There will be a childrens' treatment room, an operating room, a physical therapy area, in addition to the normal office and waiting room areas.

The five doctors will maintain a certified perceptorship training program for doctors in that field the first year out of school. This gives the new doctors a chance to work under experienced men for invaluable experience and to look over the area to decide if they want to locate here.

The five doctors occupying the complex are Paul Califano D.P.M.; A. C. Cobb, D.P.M.; Harvey C. Davis, D.P.M.; Raleigh J. Heekin, D.P.M., and Marvin R. Kasanoff, O.D.

An Open House will be held Thursday, November 18 5:30-9 p.m. to which all are invited

Agouti rodents of Central and South America greatly resemble guinea pigs.

Reunion Dinner Set

Former students of the Lemon Grove Grammar School will get together for a reunion dinner Saturday night in the Lemon Grove VFW Hall.

The students are those who attended the eighth grade in 1936.

Sixteen of the expected 180 former students who will be at the dinner are from out of town, including one who will travel over 1,200 miles to attend.

Four former teachers will be honored, including Bessie Elliot, who served the school as both a teacher and principal.

Trustees O.K. Principal Switch

The Grossmont Union High School District Board of Trustees met Monday night and approved a district policy which would call for a rotation of principals.

Principals, who have previously been assigned to one high school would switch high schools every few years as situations warranted, although no set pattern would be followed and some principals would not be rotated as frequently as others.

No switch in assignments were made at the meeting, but administrative officials indicated that some rotation may be in order for next year.

Dear Editor,

Attention all Taxpayers! Come to learn about the Jarvis Tax Limitation Initiative tomorrow night at 8 p.m. at Veterans Hall, El Cajon.

Howard Jarvis, the author of this statewide initiative will be speaking and the public is invited free of charge.

This initiative, if it qualifies for the ballot by enough signers, would limit property tax to 1 percent of the fair market value. (A $20,000 home would not pay more than $200 per year in taxes.)

This meeting is sponsored by the Foothill Taxpayers Assoc., Lakeside Citizens Assoc., East Rancho El Cajon Valley Property Owners Assoc., and the Mountain Valley Taxpayers Assoc.

LG Man Plays Key Role In Cable Repair

Belmer had visited the project site, prepared an estimate, emergency request for funds and a job order. He was joined by Leonesio in developing a job plan.

Leonesio explained the cause of the Miramar cable damage.

"I believe moisture was able to enter the cable, over a period of years, through a small hole in the insulation. This could have caused a short between a phase — one of the three wires or conductors making up the 12,000 volt cable — and the lead sheath covering the cable," Leonesio explained.

The men replaced about 780 feet of the 12,000 volt cable at Miramar, altogether. This kind of cable weighs about 8 to 10 pounds per foot. It's heavy, stiff and hard to handle, Leonesio said.

"The cable section was replaced for reasons of safety instead of just changing one splice or cutting out a a small section of cable. Cable that's been in the ground for awhile, and damaged, could be affected in other spots. It's safer to renew the entire section rather than gamble," he said.

Belmer said the crew worked 12 hour days to complete the project. They worked on the project from Oct. 9 through Oct. 13. The time period included the weekend and the Columbus Day holiday.

Soroptimist Club Hosts Visitors From Holland

Misses Jeanne Foreman, an atorney, and Maria Jurrison a teacher, both citizens of Holland attended last week's meeting of the Lemon Grove Soroptimist club.

The women presented two handmade ceramic plaques to the local president, Mrs. M. E. Carlen. The plaques were done by a Dutch sculptress, Ella Van Riet, who is a previous visitor to the Lemon Grove club. The two current visitors were houseguests at the home of Mr. and Dr. Evelyn S. Lauritzen, of Crane st., Lemon Grove.

Post Office to Expand Service on Saturday

More Saturday services have been added to local Post Office it was announced this week.

Postal patrons may now purchase money orders, pay box rent, and make deposits on second and third class mailings on Saturday.

None of these services were provided on Saturday for the past few years.

Bradshaw's Robbed By Lone Negro

Eradshaw's Market, at 1805 Massachusetts ave., Lemon Grove, was the victim of an armed robbery Sunday night when a male Negro made off with between $100 and $200 after threatening clerks with a knife.

The lone robber, who was described as about 25 years old, medium build, about 6-1 tall, speaking with a lispe and having several small "pig tails" in his hair, entered the store at about 7:10 p.m., reports indicated.

After asking a clerk where an item was located, he followed the clerk into the store room, where he threatened him with a knife, which was later recovered. The suspect then took the clerk to the front of the store where he demanded that money be placed in a paper bag.

After receiving the money, the suspect went to the store office in order to get money from the safe. A store official in that area, however, locked himself in the office before the robber could react.

As the suspect was leaving the store, a clerk hit his arm with an empty soda pop bottle, causing him to drop the knife. The robber than ran from the store and disappeared down a nearby alley.

Evidence taken at the scene included the knife, the suspects pair of sunglasses, which he lost in the struggle, and a bar of soap the suspect was believed to have handled.

Crusade Drive Half Complete

said. "We are getting some very fine increases in the tabulations we have received.

"But the pace must be speeded up if we are to complete our camaign on schedule. I urge every Crusade volunteer to get out and complete his solicitation and turn in a report to Crusade headquarters."

Leading all other campaign divisions is the Individual Gifts Division, headed by James M. Gillean and Mrs. Norman Roberts. It reported 35 percent of its goal this week.

In county communities, tiny Valley Center became the first to go "over the top," reaching 100 percent of goal this week. This was that community's first Crusade campaign.

According to Jim Boyd, who heads the Lemon Grove campaign, about sixty percent of the total campaign here is through the Lemon Grove school district, and that phase of the campaign is now ready to begin.
